

Table of Contents

1. Section 529 College Savings Plan	1-1
Background / History	1-1
A Moment to Reflect on “Traditional” Law	1-1
Who Can Offer a §529 Plan and what Kind Can They Offer?	1-1
Who Can Establish an Account?	1-2
Income & Capital Gains Tax Features	1-3
Estate and Gift Tax Features	1-6
UGMA / UTMA Features	1-6
Asset Protection Features	1-6
Financial Aid Features	1-6
Additional Notes
IRC §529 Qualified Tuition Programs - the Code Section with Noted Changes	1-10
IRS Publication 970 - Tax Benefits for Education	1-21
Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) Worksheet 2007-2008	1-101
Blank Note Pages	1-109
Chadwick A. Weber, Esquire
2. Rights of Residents of Nursing & Assisted Living Facilities	2-1
Statutes and Regulations	2-1
Admission Contracts	2-2
Privacy and Confidentiality	2-2
Access and Visitation	2-3
Medical Records	2-3
Free Choice	2-4
Notice of Rights and Services	2-4
Reasonable Modifications and Accommodation	2-5
Resident Funds and Personal Property	2-5
Exercise of Rights	2-6
Grievances and Complaints	2-6
Quality of Care and Life	2-6
Appealing MaineCare Long Term Care Assessments	2-9
MaineCare Medical Criteria for Facility Care	2-9
Appeals, Generally	2-9
Hearing Preparation	2-10
Hearings	2-12
Decisions Re Nursing Facility Medical Eligibility Denials/Terminations	2-12
Discharge Rights
Behavior-Related Discharges	2-13
Nursing Facility Discharges	2-13
Assisted Living Facility Discharges	2-15
Appendix
42 U.S.C. § 1396r (Resident Rights, Nursing Home)	2-17
Maine DHHS regulations re Nursing Facility Resident Rights	2-27
Maine DHHS regulations re Assisted Living Facility Resident Rights	2-33
Superior Court Complaint/Request for Injunctive Relief	2-41
Challenging Assisted Living Facility Discharge	2-49
Superior Court Complaint/Request for Injunctive Relief	2-49
Superior Court Motion for Temporary Restraining Order	2-57
Memorandum in Support of Temporary Restraining Order	2-59
Temporary Restraining Order (Draft)	2-61
Maine Statute: 22 M.R.S.A. §7948	2-63
Maine DHHS Regulations (Chapter 110) Nursing Facility Discharges	2-65
Maine DHHS Regulations (Chapter 110) Assisted Living Facility Discharges	2-69

Denis Culley, Esquire
Susan K. Lutton, Esquire

3. Alternative to MaineCare in Financing Long Term-	3-1
Introduction	3-1
The Changing Long-Term Care World	3-1
The Crisis Long-Term Care	3-2
The Deficit Reduction Act of 2005	3-2
Key points of MaineCare Regulations implementing DRA	3-3
Lenghening the Look Back Period	3-3
New Methods to Calculate the Length of the Transfer Penalty	3-3
When the Asset Transfer Penalty is Imposed	3-4
Advice for your Clients on Financing Long-Term Care Expenses	3-5
What is Private Sector Long-Term Planning?	3-6
Elder Law Attorneys and Geriatric Care Managers Working Together	3-6
Beware of “Silver Bullet” Solutions	3-7
The Long-Term Care Environment will Remaln Unstable	3-7
Preserve Options with a Long-Term Care Plan	3-7
Clarifying Private Sector Long-Term Care Planning	3-8
Keep Your Eye on the Prize: Access to Quality Care	3-9
A Focus on Qualily Care	3-9
Empower your Clients to Recognize and Select Quality Care	3-10
Long-Term Care as a Women’s Issue	3-10
9 Steps to Long-Term Care Security	3-11
Income	3-11
Investments	3-11
The Home	3-12
Family Care and Assistance	3-12
Legal Planning and Documents	3-13
Long-Term Care Insurance	3-13
Medical & Health Insurance Coverage	3-14
Geriatric Care Managers	3-15
Use Caution with Federal and State Long-Term Care Programs	3-16
Creating the Long-Term Care Plan	3-17
PowerPoint	3-21
Blank Note Pages	3-43

Timothy M. Vogel, Esquire

4. Avoiding Malpractice	4-1
Introduction	4-1
Statistics, generally	4-1
Legal Malpractice	4-1
Administrative Errors	4-2
Substantive Errors	4-2
Client Relations Errors	4-3
Specefic Estate Planning Issues Highlighted with Older Clients	4-3
Continuing Duty to Advise	4-4
Conclusion	4-5
Blank Note Pages	4-7

Peter J. DeTroy, III, Esquire

5. Best Practices in Probate Court: What Every Lawyer Needs to Know about Probate Litigation NO MATERIALS

The Honorable James E. Mitchell
The Honorable Richard M. Morton
The Honorable James E. Patterson

6.	How to Keep More of the Distributions from Qualified Retirement Plans and IRAs	6-1
	Introduction	6-1
	Alternative Distribution Methods	6-3
	Direct Charitable Gifts	6-5
	Minimum Distribution Rules	6-5
	Beneficiary Designations	6-6
	Post-Death Planning	6-9
	Summary	6-10
	Blank Note Pages	6-11

Clarissa B. Edelston, Esquire

7.	Basic Estate Planning I	7-1
	Introduction	7-1
	Advance Health Care Directive	7-1
	Maine Statutory Form	7-1
	Other Health Care Directives	7-2
	Durable Financial Power of Attorney	7-2
	Statutory Requirements	7-2
	Limitations on Authority to Make Gifts	7-3
	Revocation of Prior Powers	7-4
	Last Will and Testament	7-4
	Estate Planning Questionnaire	7-4
	Maine Statutory Form	7-4
	Tangibles	7-5
	Specific Bequests	7-7
	Real Estate	7-7
	Residuary Clause	7-8
	Beneficiary Designations	7-9
	Insurance	7-9
	Retirement Plan	7-9
	Final Thoughts	7-10
	Consider Disclaimers	7-10
	Probate Avoidance	7-11
	Blank Note Pages	7-13

Mary McQuillen, Esquire

8.	Estate Planning II	8-1
	Introduction	8-1
	Taxes	8-1
	Estate and Gift Tax	8-1
	Unlimited Marital Deduction	8-1
	Annual Gift Tax Exclusion and the Estate and Lifetime Gift Tax Applicable Exclusion Amounts	8-2
	Maine Estate Tax	8-3
	Generation Skipping Transfer Tax	8-4
	Using Trusts in an Estate Plan	8-4
	General Considerations	8-4
	Choosing a Trustee	8-4
	Developing a Formula for Funding Trusts to Minimize Estate Taxes	8-5
	A Note about Asset Ownership	8-6
	PowerPoint Presentation	8-9
	Blank Note Pages	8-11

Kurt E. Klebe, Esquire

9. Ethics in the Estate Planning/Elder Law World	9-1
Outline	9-1
PowerPoint Presentation - Maine Bar Rules	9-3
Model Rules of Professional Conduct - Overview	9-11
*Actec Commentaries on the Model Rules of Professional Conduct	9-13
*Reprint with the permission of the American College of Trust and Estates Counsel
Blank Note Pages	9-73

J. Scott Davis, Esquire
Susan E. Hunter, Esquire

10. MaineCare Planning	10-1
2005 State and Federal Changes to Medicaid Laws	10-1
Highlights of Maine Changes	10-1
Highlights of Federal Changes	10-1
Basic Criteria for Qualifying for Medicaid	10-2
Where Medicare Stops and Medicaid Begins	10-2
Financial Criteria for Single and Married Applicants of Medicaid Assistance for Long Term Care	10-3
Spousal Resource Allowance and Income First Rule	10-4
Medical Criteria	10-4
Medicaid Transfer Penalty Rules	10-5
The Look-Back Period	10-5
Calculating the Transfer Penalty Period	10-6
Commencement Date of Penalty Period	10-6
Undue Hardship	10-8
OBRA 93	10-9
Changes in Rounding Up Penalty Period	10-9
Exceptions to the Transfer Penalty	10-11
Curing a Transfer Penalty	10-11
Pitfalls of Transfers	10-11
Exemptions for Protecting the Family Home. Income-Producing Prop., Mortuary Trusts and Annuities ..	10-12
The Primary Residence Exemption	10-12
Special Rules with Respect to the Transfer of a Home	10-13
Property and Equipment used for Home Consumption or to Produce Income	10-13
Mortuary Trusts and Prepaid Burial	10-13
Use of Annuities in Medicaid	10-13
Estate Recovery	10-15
Introduction	10-15
Property Subject to Recovery	10-15
Hardship Waivers	10-16

Kathleen E. Kienitz, Esquire

Memorandum Explaining the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 (Medicaid Provisions)	10-17
Introduction	10-17
Background	10-17
Lengthening Look-Back Period	10-17
Change in Beginning Date for Period of Ineligibility	10-18
Availability of Hardship Waivers	10-18
Disclosure and Treatment of Annuities	10-19
Application of "Income-First" Rule in Applying Community	10-20
Disqualification for Long-Term Care	10-20
Enforceability of Continuing Care Retirement	10-21
Impose Partial Months of Ineligibility	10-22
Multiple Transfers into One Penalty	10-22

Inclusion of Certain Notes and Loans	10-23
Inclusion of Transfers to Purchase Life Estates	10-23
Effective Date of Amendments	10-23
Expansion of State Long-Term Care Partnership Program	10-24

John E. Nale, Esquire

Exhibit C - CMS Takes Steps to Improve Coverage and Sustainability of Care for Dual-Eligible Beneficiaries article with Enclosures regarding Sections 601 1, 6016, 6012, 6013, 6014, and 601 5	10-27
Section 601 1 and 6016
New Medicaid Transfer of Asset Rules under the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005	10-31
Section 6012
Changes in Medicaid Annuity Rules under the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005	10-39
Section 6013
Application of the Spousal Impoverishment c'Income-First" Rule	10-47
Section 6014
Disqualification for Long-Term Care Coverage for Indv. with SubstantialH ome Equity	10-51
Section 601 5
Rules Pertaining to the Treatment of Contin- Care Retirement Community	10-55
Exhibit D - Letter from CMS dated July 27, 2006 with Enclosure entitled "Qualified Long-Term Care Partnerships Under the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005	10-59
Exhibit E -In the Matter of Larry L. Myers, Respondent, 127 P.3d 325 (KS 2006)	10-67

Kathleen E. Kienitz, Esquire, CELA

John E. Nale, Esquire

11. The Maine Estate Tax	11-1
Introduction	11-1
The Maine Estate Tax: Pre-2001	11-1
The Maine Estate Tax: Post-EGTRRA	11-2
The Gap Tax and Maine GTIP Election	11-3
Planning Options	11-6
Imposition of Maine Estate Tax on Out-of-State Property Owned by Resident Decedents	11-8
What Lies Ahead?	11-9
Exhibit A - 26 U.S.C. § 2011(b)(1) Credit for State Death Taxes	11-11
Maine Resident Estate with Out-of-State Property	11-13
PowerPoint Presentation	11-15
Blank Note Pages	11-29

Nathaniel S. Putnam, Esquire

12. Maine Revenue Services	12-1
PowerPoint Presentation	12-2
Blank Note Pages	12-35

Dennis M. Doiron, Esquire

Heather O. Popadak, CPA

13. Minors' Trusts	13-1
Minors' Trusts: General Concepts	13-1
Transfers to Minors	13-1
Why Create a Trusts?	13-1
Common Types of Trusts	13-2
Gift Tax Exclusion	13-2
Section 2503(c) Trusts	13-2
General Features	13-2
Advantages and Disadvantages	13-3

Crummey Trusts	13-4
General Features	13-4
Advantages and Disadvantages	13-5
Tax Considerations	13-6
Estate and Gift Tax	13-6
Income Tax	13-6
Appendix
Sample 2503(c) trust language	13-9
Sample Crummey trust language	13-13
Sample Crummey trustee notice to beneficiary	13-15
Blank Note Pages	13-17

Thomas E. Getchell, Esquire

14. NAELA Aspirational Standards	14-1
National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys' Aspirational Standards for the Practice of Elder Law	14-3

Jane Skelton, Esquire

15. Parents of Disabled Children	15-1
Introduction	15-1
Minority - Legal Issues	15-1
Guardian	15-1
Conservator	15-1
Estate Planning with Special Needs Trusts	15-1
Disabled Children with Own Assets	15-2
Income Public Benefits	15-2
Social Security Disability Income	15-3
Supplemental Security Income	15-3
POMS Web Site	15-3
Medical Coverage Public Records	15-3
Medicare	15-3
MaineCare	15-3
Katie Beckett Waiver	15-3
Education Rights	15-3
Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973	15-4
The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act	15-5
Helpful Sources and Links for Education Rights	15-5
DRS's	15-5
Transitional Issues from Minority to Adult hood - Legal Issues	15-5
Is Guardianship/Conservatorship Automatically Necessary when a Disabled Child Attains Adulthood?	15-6
Income Public Records	15-6
Social Security Disability Income	15-6
Supplemental Security Income	15-6
Management of Social Security Disability or Supplemental Security Income	15-7
Medical Coverage Public Benefits	15-7
Medicare	15-7
MaineCare	15-7
Education and Transition Issues	15-7
Conclusion	15-8

Attachments

Attachment A - Disability Facilitation Payment for Wills 15-9
Attachment B - Katie Beckett MaineCare Rule 15-11
Attachment C - Katie Beckett Schedule 15-15
Attachment D - 2007 HHS Poverty Guidelines 15-17
PowerPoint Presentation 15-19
Blank Note Pages 15-33

Patricia A. Nelson-Reade, Esquire, CELA

16. Recent Developments in Charitable Giving and Exempt Organizations 16-1

Charitable Remainder Trusts and Unrelated Business Taxable Income: 16-3
Proposed Regulations Clarify the App. of Section 2036 and 2039 to Retained Interests in Trusts 16-20
Qualified Appraisals and Qualified Appraisers 16-20

Jennifer L. Kruszewski, Esquire

Charitable Lead Trusts: A Useful Tool Now More User Friendly (IRS Issues New Sample Forms) 16-23

Barbara K. Wheaton, Esquire

Recent Developments in Conservation Easements 16-65

Marianna W. Putnam Liddell, Esquire

Pension Protection Act of 2006 and the Implications for Supporting Org. under Section 509(a)(3) 16-85

Barbara K. Wheaton, Esquire

Proposed Changes to IRS Form 990 16-103

Marianna W. Putnam Liddell, Esquire

Pension Protection Act of 2006 Brings Far-Reaching Changes to Donor Advised Funds 16-139

Blank Note Pages 16-147

Marianna W. Putnam Liddell, Esquire

17. Supplemental Needs Trusts 17-1

Overview 17-1

Sally M. Wagley, Esquire

17-A. Third Party Special Needs Trusts 17-3

What are Third Party Special Needs Trusts? 17-3

Definition 17-3

How a Third Party Trust Differs from a First Party (D4) Trust 17-4

Why Establish a Third Party Trust? 17-4

To Protect Assets 17-4

To Protect Benefits 17-4

Who can Benefit from a Third Party Trust? 17-5

When can a Third Party Trust be Established? 17-6

Inter Vivos 17-6

Testamentary 17-6

Drafting Considerations 17-6

Conclusion 17-7

Sample Third Party Inter Vivos Trust 17-7

Blank Note Pages 17-13

Martha A. Grant, Esquire

17-B. The Under 65 Disability Trust (“d4A”) 17-17

SSI and Medicaid Rules Regarding Counting of Assets and Income and Imposition of Transfer Penalties .. 17-17

“Medical Exception Trust” 17-17

Distributions from the Trust	17-19
Cash Distributions vs. Vendor Payments	17-19
SSI Rules Regarding Distributions	17-19
MaineCare Rules on Distributions	17-20
Choice of Trustee	17-20
The Attorney's Role/Ethical Issues	17-21
Who is the Client?	17-21
Identify and Address Conflicts of Interest	17-21
Ensure that the Beneficiary is making an Informed Choice as to the Trust	17-22
The Client with Diminished Capacity	17-22
Blank Note Pages	17-23

Sally M. Wagley, Esquire

17-C. Special Needs Trusts	17-27
Pooled Supplemental Needs Trusts Help Keep Wolves from Seniors' Doors by *Alicia F. Curtis	17-29
*Alicia Curtis has given the MSBA permission to reproduce the following article in this chapter
Maine Pooled Disability Trust (Master Trust Agreement)	17-37
First Amendment to the Maine Pooled Disability Trust	17-55
Second Amendment to the Maine Pooled Disability Trust	17-59
The Maine Pooled Disability Trust Sponsor Agreement (I)	17-65
Maine Pooled Disability Trust II (Trust II Agreement)	17-73
Maine Pooled Disability Trust Trustee Biographies	17-91
Exhibit A - Fees for Maine Pooled Disability Trust	17-93
Charter Trust Company Schedule of Annual Fees for MPDT & MPDT II	17-95
Letter from Barbar Felts, MaineCare Program Manager, DHHS	17-97
Letter from Angela W. Hubbard, Assistant District Manager, Social Security Admin	17-99
Guidelines for Disbursement Request	17-101
Permissible Distributions from Maine Disability Trust	17-103
Disbursement Request	17-105
Maine Trust for People with Disabilities - Joinder Agreement	17-107
Maine Trust for People with Disabilities - Master Trust Agreement	17-143
Blank Note Pages	17-175

Barbara A. Carlin, Esquire

18-A. Two Years Under the UTC - Drafting Options under the Maine Uniform Trust Code	18-1
Beneficiary Controlled Trusts	18-1
Statutory Background	18-1
Drafting Opportunities	18-4
Ascertainable Standard	18-4
Power of Appointment	18-5
The Ideal Beneficiary-Trustee	18-6
Trustees and Successor Trustees	18-8
GST Planning and Exclusion from the Beneficiary's Estate	18-10
Trust Protectors	18-11
Statutory Background	18-11
Drafting Opportunities	18-13
Blank Note Pages	18-19

David J. Backer, Esquire

18-B. Two Years Under the UTC - Drafting to Implement Settlor's Intent and to Facilitate or Block Modification of Trust	18-23
What the Settlor Cannot Control	18-23
Introduction	18-23
Terms of Trust	18-23

UTC Subsection 105(2): Trust Terms Cannot Override the Following UTC Requirements	18-23
“Material Purpose:” How Can it be Shown?	18-24
“Material Purpose:” A Definition	18-24
Guidance to a Trustee in the Document	18-24
Guidance to a Trustee in a Separate Document	18-25
Drafting a Trust to Facilitate or Prevent Modification or Termination	18-25
Rules on Modification or Termination of Irrevocable Trust	18-25
Other Situations in Which Material Purpose Bears on Changes to Trust or its Trustee	18-26
Time Limits for Invoking Judicial Review	18-27
Section 1005: General Time Limit on Commencing Legal Action	18-27
Another Time Limit	18-28
Exhibit A	18-30
Blank Note Pages	18-33

Richard E. Curran, Jr., Esquire

18-C. Two Years Under the UTC - Drafting Quiet Trusts	18-37
Reports, etc. to Qualified Beneficiaries	18-37
Drafting suggestions for quiet trusts	18-38
Disclosure of information to non-qualified beneficiaries	18-41
Drafting suggestions for restricting information provided to non-qualified beneficiaries	18-42
Durable Powers of Attorney and the UTC	18-43
Statutory Background	18-43
Drafting suggestions for powers of attorney	18-44
Blank Note Pages	18-45

Jeffrey W. Jones, Esquire

19. Valuation Discounts - How Much? From Ninety Percent to Zero in Ninety Minutes	19-1
Introduction	19-1
Valuation Discounts - General Background	19-2
General Premise	19-2
Discounts and Premiums	19-2
Agreement Features Affecting Value	19-3
I.R.C. Section 2036	19-4
Sec. 2036 Transfers with retained life estate	19-4
Analysis of 2036	19-5
I.R.C. Section 2703 and 2704	19-7
Section 2703 Certain Rights and Restrictions Disregarded	19-7
Section 2074 Treatment of Certain Lapsing Rights and Restrictions	19-7
Analysis of 2703 and 2704	19-9
Embedded Capital Gains	19-10
Key Concepts	19-10
Comparable Treatment of an S. Corporation Shareholder	19-10
Appendices
The Financial Valuation Group Case Law Summaries	19-13
Internal Revenue Service Private Letter - Ruling Number 200103038	19-39
Appeals Coordinated Issue Settlement Guidelines - Issue: Discounts for Family Limited Partnerships	19-43
Blank Note Pages	19-67

Nancy J. Fannon, ASA, CPA ABV, MCBA*